

Walking Tours of Norwich

SPRING AND
SUMMER 2017

Down every cobbled street, through every welcoming door and behind every rippling pane of glass in England's only UNESCO City of Literature, there's a story waiting to be discovered.

NORWICH – a CITY OF CENTURIES

starts outside The Forum

Hear stories from a thousand years of Norwich history. From the ancient settlement of Northwic through Viking pillaging, Norman invasion, years of rebellion, plague, fire and war, up to modern day Norwich. A perfect introduction for everyone to our fine city.

April

Saturdays at 2pm.
Easter: Good Friday (14) and
Saturday (15) at 11am and 2pm.

May

Saturdays at 11am and 2pm.
Bank holiday Monday (29) at 11am and 2pm.

June

Saturdays at 11am and 2pm.
Mondays and Thursdays at 2pm.
Tuesdays at 11am

July

Saturdays at 11am and 2pm.
Monday to Thursday at 11am
and 2pm. Fridays at 2pm.

August

Saturdays at 11am and 2pm.
Monday to Thursday at 11am
and 2pm. Fridays at 2pm.
Bank Holiday Monday (28)
at 11am and 2pm.

VICTORIAN NORWICH

starts outside The Forum

An age of invention and empire, Norwich was growing beyond the city walls and industry was booming. The Norwich shawl was the height of fashion and 'must have' piece of the day. Colmans Mustard, Caley's chocolate and Bullards beer all became renowned household names, but at what cost?

Fridays at 11am

5 and 26 May, 16 June and 4 August.

Picture courtesy of VisitBritain

WORDS & WANDERINGS

starts outside The Forum

Visit England have designated 2017 the 'Year of Literary heroes' and this trail celebrates the rich literary history of Norwich. Uncover the stories of local writers who penned classics such as Black Beauty and Remains of the Day, and explore the thriving writing scene in Norwich today.

Fridays at 11am

12 May and 2 June.

Picture courtesy of VisitBritain

PASSAGEWAYS THROUGH THE PAST

starts outside The Forum

Explore hidden alleys, courts and lanes of a forgotten era. Uncover stories about the city's historic nooks and crannies, a stone's throw from the heart of the bustling centre.

Fridays at 11am

19 May, 23 June and 21 July.

OVER THE WATER

starts outside The Forum

Discover the fascinating hotchpotch of heritage buildings in the Colegate area of Norwich, once the most overcrowded of places. Fire, flood and plague have all left their mark – join the tour and hear some of the stories.

Fridays at 11am

9 June, 7 July and 18 August.

CATHEDRAL QUARTER

starts at Norwich Cathedral's Erpingham Gate

A trail around possibly the loveliest part of our fine city, taking in medieval buildings, the beautiful Cathedral Close and the nearby cobbled old world of Elm Hill – all against the magnificent backdrop of Norwich Cathedral.

Fridays at 11am

30 June, 14 July
and 25 August.

WHARVES & WATERSIDE

starts at Norwich Cathedral's Erpingham Gate

Discover the maritime heritage of Norwich in Nelson's time. Norwich was a bustling port with ships and wherries plying their valuable trade along the river to far flung destinations.

Friday 28 July at 11am.

FOOTSTEPS OF NELSON

starts at Norwich Cathedral's Erpingham Gate

Did you know that Admiral Nelson attended Norwich School? Discover his many connections with the city and hear stories of his life and times from schoolboy to national hero.

Friday 11 August at 11am.

SPECIAL EVENTS

EVENING TOURS – STROLLS & STORIES

Taking advantage of the long summer evenings, join our expert guides for a stroll around the city. More details on our website nearer the time.

Tuesdays at 6:30pm
6 and 20 June, 4 and 18 July.

PROTESTANTS, MARTYRS AND REBELS

starts outside The Forum

2017 is the 500th anniversary of Martin Luther's radical publication which started the Reformation. Norwich has always had a strong radical presence against both the religious and secular establishments. Whose side would you be on?

Sunday 9 July, Wednesday 12 July, Saturday 19 August, Sunday 27 August at 11:30am

Contact us for full details on our special events or see www.thenorwichshop.co.uk

Booking and prices

Tour	Adult	Go4less	Child
All walks are 90 min	£5	£4	£1.50

Pre-booking is advisable. Tours are subject to a maximum number of 20 people.

Private tours can be arranged.

Book at the TIC or online at www.thenorwichshop.co.uk

Contact details

Tourist Information Centre (TIC),
The Forum, Millennium Plain, Norwich, NR2 1TF

t: 01603 213999

e: tourism@norwich.gov.uk

 @moreNorwich

For more information about attractions in Norwich:
Pick up our Norwich Guide Book for £1.95 or for just £1 when you book a guided tour ticket.

www.visitnorwich.co.uk

For Norwich souvenirs, maps and more:

www.thenorwichshop.co.uk

NORWICH
City Council